

Past Students Column.

J. W. Stuart Crow is in the service of the Vacuum Oil Company. He is paying particular attention to the lubricating oil department.

C. C. Halkyard, B.C.E., has taken a position under the recently-formed Tasmanian Hydro-Electric Power Co.

A. W. L. Burston, B.C.E., has joined the staff of the State Rivers and Water Supply Commission.

G. A. Baker, B.C.E., has taken up work with the N.S.W. Railway Department. It may not be generally known that the cover of the "Varsity Engineer" is his design.

Trevor W. Ross, M.Sc., B.M.E., has been selected as the first nominee from the Melbourne University for the position of Engineer Sub-Lieutenant in the Commonwealth Navy. Pending the fruition of the Commonwealth Naval College, several of these commissions are made available annually under certain conditions to graduates in Engineering of the Universities of Melbourne, Sydney and Adelaide.

Hubert Rutter, B.C.E., sailed on 31st May for the Federated Malay States, to take a position on a tin mine at Serendah, near Kuala Lumpur.

W. H. R. Nimmo, B.C.E., has been elected an Associate Member of the Institution of Civil Engineers, London. He is now working as Engineering Surveyor for the Murrumbidgee Northern Irrigation Scheme. There should be further openings as the work expands.

K. W. Holmes, B.C.E., has been admitted as a student of the same Institution.

J. T. Gray, B.C.E., is engaged surveying in the Malay States.

E. H. Greig, B.M.E., has taken a position in the Burmah Mines Ltd., Upper Burmah.

V. F. S. Low, M.M.E., is making a tour of the world.

G. C. E. Singleton has been in California as Engineer Assistant, Western Pacific Railroad; he is now in Melbourne.

S. S. Y. Tulloch, B.C.E., is District Engineer for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, and is spending his furlough in Victoria.

T. H. Upton, M.Sc., is obtaining experience under Col. Monash.

E. A. Hepburn and A. P. Taylor, B.C.E., are in the Victorian Railway Department.

A. D. Mackay, B.Sc., is now acting as Assistant Inspector of Mines, under A. H. Merrin, M.C.E.

E. D. Shaw and F. M. Shaw are engaged with the Water Commission at Nyah.

F. H. Foster, B.C.E., and S. G. Love have gone touring in Europe.

W. S. Streetle, B.C.E., has commenced private practice, and is located in Collins-st.

J. Sarvaas, B.A., M.C.E., is now Head of the Engineering Department of the Working Men's College.

T. H. Cook is engaged in mining surveying at the Golden Horseshoe Mine, W.A. Another of our men, J. L. Connor, is third in command at the Horseshoe.

R. W. Creswell has gone to Broken Hill to obtain an insight into mining there.

THE UNIVERSITY OF

MELBOURNE

Library Digitised Collections

Title:

Past Students Column.

Date:

1912

Persistent Link:

<http://hdl.handle.net/11343/91371>